

History

Who are we ?

The Alps, alpinism and the mountain guides... a more than hundred-year-old history and definitely endless !

Today's world capital of off-piste skiing, Verbier and the St-Bernard country saw the birth of the first Guides and Porters Company in Orsières in 1853.

The time goes on but enthusiasm, passion and friendship still bind together the roped party of a client and his guide.

The mountain guides work through the seasons, in symbiosis with the nature, with the objective of sharing, discovering, listening and of course pleasure.

Today "Les Guides de Verbier" are 92 professionals, amongst them 4 women. All of them, mountain guides or mountain leaders, travelling all over the mountains with passion...

Do you want to reach the summits ?

Do you want to motivate your colleagues ?

Do you want to know the secrets of the mountains and the stories they have to tell ?

Come over in summer, in winter, alone or in a group, or with your family, and live privileged and unforgettable moments with us...
